

Boschendal Vineyard run - 11,5 & 5 km 12th October 2008

As Klaus & Tollulah are finishing their 5-day, 206km Odyssey today, we decided to join them at the finish of the last stage at Boschendal wine estate in Franschoek.

In order to officially become "Odyssey-wanna-be's" we entered for the 11,5 trail run on the estate to check if we got what it takes to maybe enter for Odyssey next year (read: I am not too sure we got what it takes ☺!)

It was a great (flat) run with beautiful scenery through the orchards around the Boschendal farm. Besides the core D.w.a.r.P. runners there were many friends joining and we had Swiss, German & Hungarian family of the D.w.a.r.P. runners who were of great support to us all, looking after our things, taking pictures and babysitting the little ones!

Mareth did an amazing first 5km race, Coach better be prepared otherwise he will be eating dust soon! Also great to see Rutger follow in his girlfriend's footsteps to join us.

After finishing our race we did not have to wait too long before the first hard-core Odyssey runners finished their last stage. Klaus and Tollulah didn't give us a change to get really tucked into some bubbles, as they arrived "pronto" to join in with us!!

The Boschendal picnic was divine and was a nice add-on to the Moreson Blanc de Blanc.

There was no lucky-draw though ☹ so no huge awards won by any of us (what's new?).
